

JOIN OUR MAILING LIST at fcreatingt@gmail.com to enjoy free or low cost multicultural, multilingual, intergenerational programs that offer inclusive opportunities in the arts for children of all abilities and their families, like the ones below.

- Family Art Workshop series based on the theme "The Power of Our Stories," exploring a unique concept (the life cycle, the seasons, imaginary creatures, underwater environments), and a different art form. Participants create art, and express themselves through storytelling and improvisational drama.
- "Creating Art at Home," a training for parents/caregivers on FCT's "process-oriented art" philosophy, that gives them practice and free materials to lead art activities with their children.
- Connections to our community partner events and workshops.

Join now, so you don't miss our upcoming events that include a performance of "Matilda" at Wheelock Theater in November!